

Linn Area
Long Term
Recovery
Coalition

Linn County Residents Affected by June 2008 Flooding HELP US HELP YOU!

The Linn Area Long Term Recovery Coalition is partnering with Christian Reformed World Relief Committee (CRWRC) Disaster Response Services to conduct a community assessment of unmet needs. Trained volunteer teams are doing door-to-door surveys to assess and prioritize long-term recovery needs. Walk-in centers are also available throughout the community. (See backside for dates and location information.)

In order to be considered for future financial assistance, for help with rebuilding and for other kinds of support through the Linn Area Long Term Recovery Coalition,
IT IS VITAL THAT YOU PARTICIPATE IN THE ASSESSMENT PROCESS.

Look for the Green Shirts!

The neighborhood assessment team members will be wearing green CRWRC shirts and will have IDs to identify themselves. Your information will be safe and secure and used only for the purposes of assessing and prioritizing needs, securing resources for recovery efforts and providing assistance. For more information, call the local United Way. Dial 211 or 319-739-4211.

The Linn Area Long Term Recovery Coalition is a partnership of local health and human service providers, government agencies, funding sources, faith-based organizations and others dedicated to supporting collaborative long-term recovery efforts to rebuild the lives of those impacted by the Flood of 2008.
